¹ Considering the variety of courses offered and the several universities where I worked between 1989 and 2004, I am not including detailed information concerning my teaching record during that period. Suffice it to note that in the University of Macau I mainly taught history courses in the framework of the MA on Luso-Asian Studies, while at the University of Aveiro I offered several times a course on Sino-Portuguese relations tailored to the MA on Chinese Studies. At the Lusíada University I taught an annual course on the history of the early modern Portuguese empire (BA International Relations).
